

2008 TCNJ SENIORS

This talented group of seniors has carried on the tradition of The College of New Jersey women's lacrosse program as they have compiled a record of 55-8 during their careers. In their first two seasons in a Lion uniform, they helped TCNJ win back-to-back national championships in 2005 and 2006, and then advanced to the national quarterfinals in 2007. This group also had plenty of success at home with a mark of 25-3 over the last four seasons. Along with their teammates, they are expected to earn the program's 24th straight bid in the NCAA Division III Tournament when the 2008 field is announced on Sunday, May 4.
